

GEORGE WEST STORYFEST presents - "Campfires, chuckwagons, chili con carne, pan de campo - and the words of J. Frank Dobie read by Texas authors' and performers."

in Oakville, TX

www.oakvillejail.com

Tel- 877-435-JAIL(5245)

DOBIE DICHOS -

"Any tale belongs to whoever can best tell it!" J.F.D.

A night of campfire cooking, booksignings and Texas authors' reading from the works of the master South Texas storyteller (Live Oak County born and raised),

J. Frank Dobie

Friday, Nov. 4, 2011- dinner starts at 6PM, readings til 9:30 PM – Oakville, TX

(on IH 37 – Exit 65 , Hwy. 1358 – between George West and Three Rivers exits)

On the grounds of the 1887 Oakville, TX Jailhouse and Town Square.

Tickets: $15.00 Adults, $7.00 children under 12 - can be purchased in advance by calling (361) 449-2481, or 888-600-3121.

Proceeds to benefit restoration of the DOBIE-WEST PERFORMING ARTS THEATRE, George West, TX.

Special guest authors and performers

Mary Ann Blue

Elizabeth Crook

Robert Flynn

Don Graham

Donna Ingham

Mary Grace Ketner

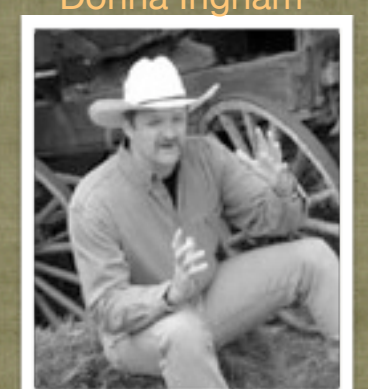

Jan Reid

John Philip Santos

William Jack Sibley

Larry Thompson